Fourth of July

There will be one Mass on Monday, July 4th, at 9:00 a.m. Come to pray for our country and thank God for our blessings.

View from the Caddyshack II

I will be away on vacation from July 4th until the 16th. I will return messages and e-mails by Monday, July 18th. Be nice to Father Franz while I am gone and stay healthy.

Youth Gathering on July 10th: All teens are invited to the 6:00 p.m. Mass next Sunday, followed by a bar-be-que and an opportunity to meet Fr. Franz. Parents, please encourage your teenagers to attend.

Independence Day: On Monday, we celebrate the freedoms we enjoy as citizens of the United States. We would do well to ask ourselves what vision we bring as Christians to our society. We have so much to offer when it comes to respect for life, marriage and family issues, personal responsibility, justice, poverty and stewardship of the earth – to name a few. The U. S. Bishops wrote in a document entitled Faithful Citizenship, "Politics should be about an old idea with new power: the common good. The central question should be: how can we protect and promote human life and dignity? How can we pursue greater justice and peace?"

Fifth Annual St. Francis of Assisi Golf Classic will take place on Saturday, July 16th, at Little Mountain Country Club. Join us for a fun-filled day on the links that will include premium Silent Auction items, exciting raffles, dinner and much more! Proceeds will benefit the parish school and youth of our parish. See the bulletin for all the details. Registration deadline is July 9, 2011. I will join the golfers and guests for dinner in the evening. I don't have enough humility to be seen playing golf!

Sunday Scriptures: When Jesus said, "Come to me... take my yoke upon you..." He is offering to be our partner in bearing our burdens. He is telling us we won't go through life alone.

Vocation View: "Come to me all you who are weary and find life burdensome and I will refresh you." Pray for priests, brothers and sisters, for all who offer their lives to be a sign of Jesus' refreshing love. Pray for those who are being called to join them in that ministry.

Some words to live by: "Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak." (St. Anthony of Padua)

Some humor to survive by: Many of the saints had a sense of humor:

St. Anthony Avellino, a 17th century canon lawyer, was asked by a pious priest: "Father Anthony, how long should one stay at the bedside of a sick person?" Anthony replied, "Always be brief. There are two advantages. If they like you, they'll want you back. If you're boring, their discomfort will be short."

As St. Thomas More was climbing the steps up to the chopping block for his beheading, he said to his executioner, "I pray you help me on the way up, and I will take care of myself on the way down."

St. Lawrence was martyred by being burned to death on a gridiron. He said to his executioners, "Turn me over, I'm done on this side." (He is the patron saint of chefs!)

One day, while St. Teresa of Avila was traveling to one of her convents, she fell off her donkey into the mud and injured her leg. She looked up to heaven and said, "Lord, you couldn't have picked a worse time for this to happen." While she was at prayer the next day, she heard God's response, "This is how I treat my friends." To which Teresa replied, "And that is why you have so few friends."

Pope John XXIII was asked by a reporter how many people work in the Vatican. The Pope replied, "About half."

RCIA
(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?
Is your spouse, fiancé, neighbor, or friend interested?

The RCIA Process enables those who are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Faith to come and "find out what it is all about." Most often, people join us because they are invited. Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation. The RCIA Process is for unbaptized, those baptized in another faith tradition, as well as adults who have been baptized Catholic and have not celebrated the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. Please call Martha Stewart at 461-1494 for more information and to set up an appointment to talk about the process.

Retiring with Purpose – Register now!

Whether you have, are in the process of, or will be making a career transition in the future, St. Anselm and St. Francis Parishes offer you a new way to think about retiring to something new with energy and purpose. A two-part workshop will be held at St. Anselm Church on Monday, August 29, from 6:30-9:00 p.m., and Tuesday, August 30, from 6:30-9:00 p.m. Register for both nights by July 29, 2011, by sending your name, contact information and check for $25.00 payable to St. Anselm Church. Forms are also available online and in the Baptistery. Immediately, you will receive a survey which will enhance your participation. (It will be calculated and returned prior to the workshop in late August). Plan on attending for great ideas on transitioning to something new.

Eucharistic Ministers at Manor Care

A group of dedicated Eucharistic Ministers take Communion to Catholic patients at Manor Care Mayfield every Sunday. We are in need of more people to help with this important ministry. If you are a Eucharistic Minister and are able to help out, please call Martha Stewart at 461-1494. Thanks so much!

Tuesday Club Cookout!

Summer is just around the corner and so is the annual Tuesday Club Cookout! Come and celebrate summer with baseball, bingo and BYOB (bring your own banana!) on Tuesday, July 12, starting at 11:30 a.m., in the Activities Room at St. Francis School. Our resident Grill Master will be providing delicious hot dogs and we will have all of the fixins to make your own banana split!
